Pillar 2: Persona

Just a Thought: Persona is who you are at your core and at the toughest times of life. It is often shaped and defined by those you surround yourself with and listen to.

Scripture: There is a way that seems right to a man, but its end is the way of death. Proverbs 14:12 NKJV

Discussion:

1. Who do you really think you are at your core?
2. Do the people around you encourage you to be your best or pull you away from your destiny and legacy?
3. Who do you have in your life that is building your persona and legacy?
4. What type of people do you need to add to your life to fully live out your purpose?
5. Are there any people in your life that you may need to limit or remove from your regular interactions?
6. Who are you pouring your life into to build their persona and character?

Legacy Lifter: One of the key factors of building our legacy is first being built up and strong ourselves. We often want to help others, but this is best done from a place of strength. You may want to make a list of three areas in your life you need to grow and then find three men to help you grow in these areas to help you build your persona. These types of relationships can speak wisdom into your life, because not everything that seems right at the moment is the right thing for us to do.
