Pillar 5: Priorities

Just a Thought:

Success coaches teach that “the key to success is found in your daily habits.” Are we sowing good daily habits with an expectation of reaping a bountiful harvest?

Scripture:

“Don't be misled—you cannot mock the justice of God. You will always harvest what you plant. ... So let's not get tired of doing what is good. At just the right time we will reap a harvest of blessing if we don't give up.” Galatians 6:7, 9

Discussion Questions:

1. What things are you placing a priority on?
2. Are these things sowing to the Spirit or the Flesh?
3. If we find that we are sowing to the flesh more than the Spirit, how can we uproot “fleshly plants” to sow spiritual ones?
4. Mark 4:1-20 tells the parable of the farmer who scattered seed across four types of hearts. Which type represents your heart?
5. If your heart is not good ground, what can you do to prepare it?
6. How does our daily actions in sowing/reaping set an example for our children to follow?

Legacy Lifter:

We are all farmers. Our daily actions are planting seed in our lives that will grow up to become a harvest. We have the ability to choose what we will plant. Will we plant spiritual seed or fleshly seed? Whatever we choose, the harvest we reap will impact both us and our families for generations.
